

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/25/2024 12:47:51 AM

First name: Paul

Last name: Grove

Organization:

Title:

Comments: You know, if you actually follow both the words and intention of The Wilderness Act, this is actually pretty simple:

Permanent climbing anchors are prohibited. Period. Why is there any discourse? Just because climbers (whom I support!) really want them, well, not in Wilderness. Case Closed. Do these installations somehow protect Nature in a "natural, untrammled state"? No. So no on permanent climbing anchors.