

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/26/2024 3:05:42 PM

First name: Carl

Last name: Salk

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I don't understand why fixed anchors should be allowed in wilderness areas. USFS wilderness offices are consistently highly protective of wilderness areas, even restricting beneficial activities like scientific research. When I worked for PSW research station, we were heavily restricted in what we could do in wilderness areas!

I hope that the USFS will uphold wilderness regulations and not make an exception for recreational climbing.