

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/26/2024 7:48:46 PM

First name: Garrett

Last name: Genereux

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Rock climbing is an essential wilderness experience, a valid wilderness experience. If fixed anchors are banned or the process for their placement is significantly changed, that jeopardizes the safety of the wilderness experience for rock climbers. Trail signs should also be considered an installation. However, their removal would create unsafe conditions for wilderness experiences. Please make no changes to fixed anchors. They are essential for the wilderness experiences of thousands of Americans each year.