

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/28/2024 1:45:30 AM

First name: Kristine

Last name: Bunnell

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am against any effort to prevent bolted climbing routes in the national forest. The proposed idea to prevent new bolted routes and take away bolted routes is preposterous. Climbing is a sport enjoyed by all demographics, creates tourism in small economically dependent towns, gives jobs to folks that would otherwise be on the street. Leave the bolts alone. Let us have our sport. Thank you!