

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/28/2024 2:41:39 AM

First name: Brian

Last name: Dunnohew

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I grew up in the wild Wyoming wilderness and foothills. Restricting the establishment of new routes to "existing climbing opportunities" on non-Wilderness lands is unenforceable and will create confusion amongst land managers and climbers. Non-Wilderness climbing management policy should maintain opportunities for new anchors unless and until analyses determine climbing should be restricted to protect cultural and natural resources.