

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/28/2024 7:05:33 AM

First name: Juhi

Last name: Pathak

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I stand against the policy that would make fixed anchors (bolts, pitons, slings) prohibited in America's Wilderness areas. Restricting the establishment of new routes to "existing climbing opportunities" on non-Wilderness lands is unenforceable and will create confusion amongst land managers and climbers. Non-Wilderness climbing management policy should maintain opportunities for new anchors unless and until analyses determine climbing should be restricted to protect cultural and natural resources.