

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/29/2024 1:04:26 PM

First name: Sam

Last name: Forstag

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Climbing is a low-impact way to engage citizens with their public lands and build support for funding and protecting public access. Restricting the establishment of new climbing routes would erect an unnecessary barrier to access and buy-in, and this change would to long-term harm to our ability to build support for public lands and to access them safely. Please do not enact restrictions on the establishment of new climbing routes.