

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/29/2024 2:58:29 PM

First name: Jarrod

Last name: Blundy

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Please help us to maintain safe climbing recreation! It's as important as hiking and other recreational activities.

Restricting the establishment of new routes to "existing climbing opportunities" on non-Wilderness lands is unenforceable and will create confusion amongst land managers and climbers. Non-Wilderness climbing management policy should maintain opportunities for new anchors unless and until analyses determine climbing should be restricted to protect cultural and natural resources.