

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/29/2024 4:32:08 PM

First name: Kolina

Last name: Coe

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Please do not approve this project. Climbing is one of the most amazing things we can do to recreate in our lands. It has never little impact on the environment and restricting the establishment of new routes to "existing climbing opportunities" on non-Wilderness lands is unenforceable and will create confusion amongst land managers and climbers. Non-Wilderness climbing management policy should maintain opportunities for new anchors unless and until analyses determine climbing should be restricted to protect cultural and natural resources.