

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/29/2024 6:19:55 PM

First name: Rex

Last name: Destombe

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Restricting the establishment of new routes to "existing climbing opportunities" on non-Wilderness lands is unenforceable and will create confusion amongst land managers and climbers. Non-Wilderness climbing management policy should maintain opportunities for new anchors unless and until analyses determine climbing should be restricted to protect cultural and natural resources.

Please do not go through with this action, removing these bolts will strip experiences and memories from happening in such incredible places and limit, those who can reach the outdoors