

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/29/2024 6:25:09 PM

First name: Lisa

Last name: Fisbeck

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Limiting the establishment of new routes to "existing climbing opportunities" on non-Wilderness lands will only create confusion amongst land managers and climbers. Not to mention it is completely unenforceable. Non-Wilderness climbing management policy should maintain opportunities for new anchors unless there is a need to protect cultural and natural resources.