

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/29/2024 7:05:49 PM

First name: Kaleb

Last name: Stephens

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Restricting the establishment of new routes to "existing climbing opportunities" on non-wilderness lands is unenforceable and will create confusion amongst land managers and climbers. Non-wilderness climbing management policy should maintain opportunities for new anchors unless and until analyses determine climbing should be restricted to protect cultural and natural resources.