

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/29/2024 7:34:53 PM

First name: Anon

Last name: Anon

Organization:

Title:

Comments: As a former mountain guide and lifelong climber, I submit that fixed anchors are a safety-critical part of America's wilderness climbing experience and history, and contribute to the enjoyment of America's wilderness areas. and it would be near impossible for one organization to maintain them all. I encourage the USFS to reconsider this policy and its purpose.