

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/29/2024 9:21:07 PM

First name: James

Last name: Alexander

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I share the sentiment of the Access Fund:

Restricting the establishment of new routes to "existing climbing opportunities" on non-Wilderness lands is unenforceable and will create confusion amongst land managers and climbers. Non-Wilderness climbing management policy should maintain opportunities for new anchors unless and until analyses determine climbing should be restricted to protect cultural and natural resources.