

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/29/2024 9:54:19 PM

First name: Anon

Last name: Anon

Organization:

Title:

Comments: This restriction discriminates against and limits access for those who rely on fixed anchors for rock climbing. In many situations, this will create an unintended division of access, potentially allowing those with technical skills and training, often obtained at great cost and time, potential access, while restricting the more diverse, yet less technically proficient summer camp participants and staff from safe enjoyment of the resource.