

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/29/2024 10:47:27 PM

First name: Walter

Last name: Wilson

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Banning bolts or deeming them illegal installations will not only endanger the lives of many climbers by making routes less safe, it will reduce the access and enjoyment of the outdoors and public lands for many citizens. This will lead to an even less active populace and less empathy for the outdoors in general since the number of people that are able to get outside appreciate mother nature will be diminished.