

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/29/2024 11:03:57 PM

First name: Anon

Last name: Anon

Organization:

Title:

Comments:

Fixed gear, anchors and repel stations are an essential part of climber safety and are necessary in order to prevent death and other injuries in our sport. Additionally, having fixed anchors and other forms of protection help prevent further erosion and deterioration of trees and other natural features in our climbing areas.