

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/29/2024 11:12:15 PM

First name: Andrew

Last name: K

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Disallowing bolted anchors is contrary to the established precedent of managing the installation and use of permanent anchors.

Disallowing permanent anchors will mean dangerous conditions for climbers as Climbers will leave "tat" behind which cannot be monitored, is not standardized and risks failure when degrading in sunlight.

Please regulate the installation of climbing anchors instead of outlawing it. Let the community of climbers keep our cliffs looking nice and safely manage bolted anchors.