Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/29/2024 11:14:38 PM

First name: Matthew Last name: Stein Organization:

Title:

Comments: Restricting the establishment of new routes to "existing climbing opportunities" on non-Wilderness lands is unenforceable and will create confusion amongst land managers and climbers.

This will make climbing unsafe and put a large number of climbers at harm. This would destroy an American generation from exploring the wilderness.