

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/29/2024 11:23:58 PM

First name: Yuka

Last name: Kadono

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I believe that restricting the establishment of new routes to climbing areas on non-Wilderness lands is unenforceable and will not only lead to unnecessary conflict between land managers and climbers, but also impede the safety of climbers. Since climbers have traditionally and historically been great advocates of cultural and natural preservation of climbing areas, I think that new anchors should be allowed until ongoing research deems them problematic on a case-by-case basis.