

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/30/2024 4:49:40 PM

First name: Charles

Last name: Tiedemann

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Restricting the establishment of new routes to existing climbing opportunities on non-wilderness lands is unenforceable and will create confusion amongst land managers and climbers. Non-wilderness climbing management policy should maintain opportunities for new anchors unless and until analyses determine climbing should be restricted to protect cultural and natural resources.

Please take this into consideration and appreciate how important this is to climbing.