

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/30/2024 5:20:17 PM

First name: Adriana

Last name: Chavez

Organization:

Title:

Comments:

Restricting the establishment of new routes to "existing climbing opportunities" on non-Wilderness lands is unenforceable and will create confusion amongst land managers and climbers. Non-Wilderness climbing management policy should maintain opportunities for new anchors unless and until analyses determine climbing should be restricted to protect cultural and natural resources.