

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/30/2024 6:48:11 PM

First name: Hassaan

Last name: Qadir

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The status quo on anchors exists to balance the various legitimate uses of our shared wilderness. To require all fixed anchors to be affirmatively approved by the government, rather than allowing them to remain unless actively ruled against, cuts against the American tradition of ordered liberty and would de facto ban fixed anchors, being an existential threat against climbers, some of the greatest supports of our public lands.