

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/30/2024 8:16:47 PM

First name: Tucker

Last name: Waldron

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I hope the new amendments are seriously reconsidered. Restricting the establishment of new routes to "existing climbing opportunities" on non-Wilderness lands is unenforceable and will create confusion amongst land managers and climbers. Non-Wilderness climbing management policy should maintain opportunities for new anchors unless and until analyses determine climbing should be restricted to protect cultural and natural resources. Without hard evidence, there is no justifiable reason to restrict access that has been historically available.