

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/30/2024 8:29:55 PM

First name: Craig

Last name: Copelin

Organization:

Title:

Comments: As a lifelong climber I know how access to wildness climbing impacted myself. The loss of anchors in wilderness and other areas will negatively impact the lives of so many climbers. We as a culture are Stewards of the environment and in my humble opinion have benefitted the wilderness as a whole by being there and educating our colleagues and future generations. The removal or limiting of anchors in wilderness will do more harm than good. Please consider this in your decision making.