Comments: I recently rafted down the Grand Canyon and was really impressed by the park service takes care of the river corridor. Living near the Eagles Nest Wilderness I know how popular our wilderness areas have become and how difficult it is to preserve them. A Categorical Exclusion for outfitter permits the Bob Marshall Wilderness Complex will not serve the best interests of the wilderness. There needs to be a public examination of impacts. Visiting the Bob Marshall Wilderness is high on my to-do list. I hope is as pristine and wild as the stories I have heard.
