

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/30/2024 8:44:34 PM

First name: Tyler

Last name: Hill

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The proposed changes are unreasonable and will ultimately lead to conflict as they are also in direct contradiction to climbing culture. More often than not, climbing culture produces good land stewards who care about the wilderness they recreate in. Route developers even more so. The proposed changes are not enforceable and do not seem to stem from an understanding of climbing's place in history or its current culture and trajectory.