

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/30/2024 8:41:31 PM

First name: Laura

Last name: Huggins

Organization:

Title:

Comments: It is my understanding that the underlying laws of our public lands state that these lands and resources are for public use for all. Therefore, I don't understand how placing a bolt line for safety is any different than establishing a trail through a forest-both create a visual path for the public to use and enjoy...

Thank you for considering this logic and overall climbers safety,
Laura Huggins