

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/30/2024 9:51:14 PM

First name: Emily

Last name: Thebeau

Organization:

Title:

Comments: My husband is a volunteer for the Kane County SAR. He, along with other members of the ropes team, often use established climbing routes all over Utah and Arizona. With proposed bolt prohibition, I am VERY concerned for the safety of our SAR teams. Not only in a rescue situation, but in their recreation (which we lovingly refer to as "practice").

It seems to me that the safety of all climbers would escalate if there are not fixed anchors allowed.