

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/30/2024 10:06:04 PM

First name: Ian

Last name: Havlick

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The current proposal restricting drilled climbing anchors in national parks and wilderness areas is misplaced and iMessage and goes against the fundamentals of public use in our wild public lands.

Bolts and safe anchors do not impact other users experiences and can be established in a responsible way that leaves minimal visual impacts.

I strong oppose a bolting and anchor ban in wilderness and national parks as an IFMGA mountain guide that relies on solid, safe, secure anchors.