Comments: Please protect our climbing routes, climbing is a way for human to explore and expand in the wilderness and be one with nature. Many climbers are respectful and understanding of keeping our wilderness wild, it embedded in our culture. By getting rid of our bold on amazing climbs we're are losing true American history, and American rock climbing is important in American adventure. America will lose it hold in climbing culture and fall behind other countries. Please protect our climbing, by which you keep climbers safe, keep people spirits alive and well and keep America history in climbing forever.
