

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/30/2024 11:51:14 PM

First name: Alison

Last name: Osius

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I strongly support careful use by climbers of fixed anchors in the wilderness. Such anchors allow the kind of primitive recreation the Wilderness Act was designed to encourage, and they are important for safety. Many is the time, in the mountains and on the crags, that I have had to escape a route unexpectedly due to storm or other event, and was able to retreat safely thanks to the presence of such anchors. Thank you.