

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/31/2024 1:32:10 AM

First name: Alex

Last name: Robertson

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Fixed anchors are a vital piece of climbing safety system and prohibiting them would lead to more deaths and injuries. Fixed anchors allow climbers to safely rappel from routes rather than walk off or leave tattered fixed anchors that impact the "primitive" wilderness nature. Restricting the establishment of new routes to "existing climbing opportunities" on non-Wilderness lands is vague and unenforceable.