

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/31/2024 1:34:47 AM

First name: Harriet

Last name: Newman

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Please reconsider this project. Fixed anchors are essential to climbers' safety and have been authorized for decades.

Prohibiting fixed anchors will not only create safety issues, but will prevent further vertical exploration by climbers, discourage proper use of public lands and put an end to America's potential for being home to more record shattering climbing achievements.

There is so much potential for climbing and we are just at the beginning, please reconsider and collaborate with climbers to build a better, sustainable future.