

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/31/2024 2:34:47 AM

First name: Ariel

Last name: Sultan

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Dear USFS,

Restricting the establishment of new routes to "existing climbing opportunities" on non-Wilderness lands is unenforceable and will create confusion amongst land managers and climbers. Non-Wilderness climbing management policy should maintain opportunities for new anchors unless and until analyses determine climbing should be restricted to protect cultural and natural resources.

Sincerely,

Ariel