

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/31/2024 3:14:27 AM

First name: Liz

Last name: Whaley

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Restricting the establishment of new routes to "existing climbing opportunities" on non-Wilderness lands is unenforceable and will create confusion amongst land managers and climbers. Non-Wilderness climbing management policy should maintain opportunities for new anchors for the safety of climbers and rescue staff unless and until analyses determine climbing should be restricted to protect cultural and natural resources.