

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/31/2024 3:29:35 AM

First name: Andy

Last name: McNutt

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I urge the Forest Service to apply a more rigorous permitting process for the Bob Marshall Wilderness area than proposed. The Forest Service has a legal duty to protect the wilderness character of designated wilderness areas. Outfitters should be required to have management plans. The Forest Service should perform reviews and have inspections to ensure the wilderness character of the area is preserved. An environmental assessment should be done before permitting.