Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/31/2024 4:04:33 AM
First name: Alyssa
Last name: Horton
Organization:
Title:
Comments: Restricting the establishment of new routes to "existing climbing opportunities" on non-Wilderness lands is unenforceable and will create confusion amongst land managers and climbers. Non-Wilderness climbing management policy should maintain opportunities for new anchors unless and until analyses determine climbing should be restricted to protect cultural and natural resources.