

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/31/2024 4:35:48 AM

First name: michael

Last name: constans

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I think wilderness areas should have limited incursions by profit-making enterprises, especially if those make significant impacts. Widened trails more resembling roads, wooden structures like corrals at horse camps, trails heaped with manure, these are all impacts that go too far. Keep these on BLM land.