

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/30/2024 4:47:17 AM

First name: Travis

Last name: Ludlum

Organization:

Title:

Comments: As a long time member of the Access Fund, I agree with their principles of keeping climbing accessible and am reiterating their viewpoint on this project:

Restricting the establishment of new routes to "existing climbing opportunities" on non-Wilderness lands is unenforceable and will create confusion amongst land managers and climbers. Non-Wilderness climbing management policy should maintain opportunities for new anchors unless and until analyses determine climbing should be restricted to protect cultural and natural resources.