

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/31/2024 5:20:06 PM

First name: Holger

Last name: Mathews

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The diversity of plant life and the very old trees in particular can never be replaced. Replanting after tree harvesting yields a much weaker and less survivable forest. We will never be able to recover the lush Flora and Fauna that would be lost by harvesting the old growth. Please do not let the irreplaceable be lost to logging and land clearing that would be better suited for younger and replaceable forests.