Comments: These wilderness areas were set up to protect wilderness & wildlife. That is why people visit these areas. It should be a wilderness experience. Not overrun like a holiday camp. Wilderness camps in Canada have one drop dunny. People take their own tents, bedding & food. No horses are allowed. Don't turn these wilderness into a fun park for lazy people who can't be bothered hiking. Horses trample the ecosystem & introduce foreign weeds. You can't get a wilderness experience if you want the luxuries of city life.
