

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 2/1/2024 6:10:55 PM

First name: Linda

Last name: Leyva

Organization:

Title:

Comments: As ecosystems are impacted by the current climate disaster, it is critical that the Northwest Forest Plan prioritize maintaining biodiversity and habitat interconnectivity. The plan must include the features set forth in the US Executive order 14072, to effectively address the perils of climate change, and also include mandated practices to protect old growth trees and the habitat that maintains them. In addition, using centuries old indigenous burning practices to avoid devastating wildfires must be incorporated a sane Forest Plan.