

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 2/2/2024 4:58:51 AM

First name: Justin

Last name: Bray

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I work in the summers as a guide on the Chattooga river and I live very near the Chattahoochee and Sumter national forests year round. Frankly I hate to see any logging activity within the forest. Although I understand the need for timber, what few old-growth and mature stands of forest remain are surely more precious than the revenue they would yield. Please consider sparing these resources, and strengthening protection for them as stewards of the wilderness.