

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 2/2/2024 5:30:13 AM

First name: Barbara

Last name: Andersen

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I feel that if we are to amend the current agreement it is of vital importance that we protect ALL the old growth and mature trees in the reserves. These trees are important for the preservation of our climate through the vast amount of carbon sequestration these forests store. Progress has been made since the 1994 Forest plan was set in place, more progress can and must be made. Do not lose this opportunity to strengthen these protections.