Comments: Closing great riding area all year round scares me. As a mom of kids who recently got their first 200, I can't wait to share this sport that I love with them. At only 5 and 2 years old they love going new places and seeing this beautiful country that God created! I fear that. Closing riding areas is a slippery slope. If this closure goes through, I can't imagine the limit on the areas that they will face. Once an area is closed, it's never reopened.
