Good Morning,

Thank you so much for your interest in providing oral testimony at the upcoming Northwest Forest Plan Federal Advisory Committee Meeting in Eugene, Oregon. The public comment period is scheduled for Tuesday 1/30 from 9:15am to 10:45am. Due to the high volume of requests that we have received, each commenter will have 2 minutes to provide their oral testimony.

You have been assigned slot number 34 from approximately 10:42:30am - 10:44:30am.

The University of Oregon is livestreaming our event and requires that any person who will be speaking on camera fills out their online Media Release form. It is ESSENTIAL that you fill this form out by Sunday evening 1/28 or you will not be permitted to share your testimony on Tuesday. Well, Kari Norgaard is a professor at UO who works on the Klamath, and is travelling today to a conference she is presenting at in New Mexico. She is also my spouse and asked me to sign her up.

Ron Reed is a tribal member, living within the Klamath National Forest on Karuk Ancestral land, and has limited cell service and wifi connectivity.

I will try and contact them, but I'm hoping you can put them on the list. They are both cc'd here on this email.

Ron and Kari - if you get this email in time, please reply all and tell Katie (the person below), "I would like to deliver an oral comment at the upcoming FAC meeting Jan. 30th - Feb. 1st on the University of Oregon campus," or something similar.

Hello Sam,

We would need to be in direct contact with those individuals as they will need to sign a release form. If they would like to deliver an oral comment, please ask them to send us an email requesting this by 11:59 PST tonight.

Hello,

I emailed you earlier today about my desire to submit public testimony. I would also like to see if I could register two other folks to deliver an oral public comment at the upcoming FAC meeting Jan. 30th - Feb. 1st on the University of Oregon campus.

These comments will take approximately 3 minutes each.

Their names are:

Ron Reed, Karuk Tribal Member and Tribal Dipnet Fisherman

Kari Norgaard, Professor of Sociology at University of Oregon.

Please let me know what time I should plan to be at the meeting location, and if you need any additional information from me.
