

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 3:49:03 PM

First name: Anon

Last name: Anon

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I believe that cabins do not belong in designated Wilderness. The U.S. Forest Service must leave its policy unchanged and phase out ANILCA cabins, as was the original intent. These cabins were never meant to persist in Wilderness, and to change this policy would undermine ANILCA and the Wilderness Act.

Thank you.