

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 3:49:37 PM

First name: LARA

Last name: LORENZ KASTNER

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Dear Committee,

Untouched nature is in a perilous balance. Cabins don't belong in designated Wilderness. The U.S. Forest Service must leave its policy unchanged and phase out ANILCA cabins, as was the original intent. These cabins were never meant to persist in Wilderness, and to change this policy would undermine ANILCA and the Wilderness Act.

Please find another solution.

Lara Lorenz, voter and taxpayer