

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 3:51:44 PM

First name: Lynette K

Last name: Henderson

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I agree with the concept that cabins don't belong in designated Wilderness areas. The U.S. Forest Service must leave its policy unchanged and phase out ANILCA cabins, as was the original intent. These cabins were never meant to persist in Wilderness, and to change this policy would undermine ANILCA and the Wilderness Act.